REFORM COUNTY CONVENTION!

PEOPLE'S MEETINGS TO-NIGHT.

THE Independent Democratic Electors of the several Towns and Wards of the County of Milwaukee, in favor of Retrenchment and Reform in County Affairs, and of making a People's Ticket for County Officers, are invited to meet in their respective Wards and Towns this, TUESDAY, Evening, at 7 o'clock, to appoint three delegates each to the Convention which is to be held at Armory Hall, at 2 P. M. on Wednesday next. The places of meeting for the several Wards, will be as follows:

First Ward—Bielfeld's Garden.
Second Ward—Rantz's Hall.
Third Ward—Light Guard Saloon.
Fourth Ward—Menomonee Hotel.
Fifth Ward—Niagara Hotel.
Sixth Ward—Altpeter's Saloon.
Seventh Ward—Bast's Beer Hall, Market street.
Eighth Ward—F. Newk rk's Saloon.
Ninth Ward—Rimmele's Saloon.

By order of the Committee of Arrangements.

The News.

Advices from Mexico indicate continued hostilities between the two parties now struggling for the ascendancy in that unfortunate country.—The Liberals are said to have lost 600 men in an engagement with MIRAMON's forces, having been surprised when off their guard. VIDAURI, the General of the Liberal forces, had very unceremoniously ordered all Spaniards to quit San Luis Potosi within 24 hours.

The Opposition candidates for Congress in Albany County, N. Y., have united against ERASTUS CORNING, the regular Democratic nominee. His defeat may, therefore, be considered a foregone conclusion.

The defeat J. GLANCY JONES will place Mr. PHILLIPS, of Missouri, a free trade democrat, in the position of Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means. JONES leaves on his "foreign mission" in November.

Tremendous indignation has been created at New Albany, Indiana, by the arrest of a free white citizen of that State by a band of slave catching officers from Kentucky without a warrant. An armed force of 100 men invaded Kentucky for the avowed purpose of rescuing the captured man.

In the New York produce market wheat is reported firmer, and flour unchanged. Our own market, yesterday, was a little more buoyant than usual.

The Convention To-Morrow.

The Republican County Convention, which met in this city on Saturday last, adjourned to meet again, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.—They, at the same time, invited the Independent Democrats of the City and County, who were opposed to the "Court House Ticket," and in favor of making new nominations, to co-operate with them in the selection of other, and, as they hope, better candidates. With this view, meetings are called, in all the Wards of our City to-night, for the election of three Delegates from each, to represent the views and wishes of the Independent Democratic Electors of our County. The call will be found in our advertising columns. Let all those of our Democratic friends, who desire change and Reform in our County Offices and affairs, attend these meetings, and send up Delegates to the Convention, which meets to-morrow.

The Contest in Illinois.

The News of Sunday makes formal complaint against the Republicans, for inviting GOV. CHASE and Mr. CONWIN, of Ohio, to come over into Illinois and help them. The News regards this as a very unfair "persecution," of Senator DOUGLAS. Yet when Senator JONES, of Tennessee, and other Southern stumpers, came into Illinois to help DOUGLAS, the News, so far from objecting, quite approved of this interference. And indeed, in the very issue in which it attacks GOV. CHASE, for coming to Illinois to speak to the Republicans, it publishes an elaborate letter from GOV. WISE, of Virginia, written solely to prop up Senator DOUGLAS. Now if GOV. WISE may properly speak for DOUGLAS, why may not GOV. CHASE speak against him? Or, if there is no impropriety in Senator JONES coming all the way from Tennessee to advocate the DOUGLAS cause, why may not Mr. CONWIN come from Ohio to oppose that cause?

☞ The Cleveland Plaindealer, whose editor was turned out of the Post-Office for dissenting from the Kansas Policy of the Administration, says:

"Lecompton" means more than the forcing of a slave constitution on a free people almost unanimously opposed to it. It covers the making of party tests by the President, and proscription for not changing opinions on the order of the President!

This is a truthful exposition of the term.—Those who endorse "Lecompton" submit their wills and their consciences to those who have no right to either.

THE APPOINTMENT OF J. GLANCY JONES.—The Pennsylvania papers are indignant at the deliberate insult to the people of that State, involved in the appointment of J. GLANCY JONES, as Minister to Austria. The Philadelphia Bulletin says:

There is one thing about this appointment that deserves notice. It is a new instance of Mr. Buchanan's contempt for the will of the people.—The instant he heard that Mr. Jones had been defeated, in the face of a democratic majority of nearly 5,000, he took up the man that the people had prostrated, and declared that he would rebuke them for thus punishing their faithless representative. He has been thus defying public sentiment all his life, and unless he should resign and go into retirement, he will continue thus to defy it to the end of his days.

THE LONDON AND PORT SARNIA RAILWAY.—The Sarnia Tribune of the 19th says:

The laying of the rails on the Great Western Railway would be completed this week if it were not for the want of iron on this end of the line. The failure is attributable to the loss of the schooner Canada, with seven hundred tons of rails on board, about twenty miles from Kingston, near the docks. There is plenty of iron at the other end, and the only effect on the road will be a delay of a few days. The two ends are now about seven miles apart, and there are eight miles ballasted on the other end."

☞ The election returns from Huntington County, Indiana, which erroneously contained the name of PURVIANCE instead of PETTIT, have been promptly corrected by the clerk who made the mistake. The vote was all right, and Mr. PETTIT will, of course, receive his certificate of election.

☞ The Republicans and anti-Lecompton Democrats have unitedly agreed to support the courageous anti-Lecompton member of Congress, John B. Haskin, for re-election in the Westchester, N. Y. District.

County Treasurer.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 25, 1858.

MR. EDITOR:—As an outside observer of the contest going on for the different County offices in this County, I am pleased to see that one candidate, at least, has been brought before the People, who is worthy of their support, for the position for which he has been put forward.

Rarely indeed have the People of this County been called upon to support a man more worthy of their suffrage, more competent for the position for which he has been nominated, than GARRET BARRY, the candidate for County Treasurer.

As one of the People who believe that no partisan feeling should induce us to vote against a man who is competent, at the risk of electing an incompetent demagogue, I hope the voters of this County will throw aside all party feelings in this instance, and elect Capt. BARRY to the office of Co. Treasurer, in whose hands the funds of the Co. will be safe. He is no partisan politician; he is not known among the office-seeking politicians, in this Co., but it is enough for the voters of this Co. to know, that he is an honest citizen, and that he will make a faithful and capital officer. ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

From the Grand Rapids Enquirer, Oct. 21.

Appalling Calamity—A Man, his Wife and Two Children Burnt to Death.

One of the most appalling calamities that ever occurred in Kent county, transpired on Tuesday night last, about eight and half miles south of this city. A dwelling house and its contents, including a man, his wife, and two children, were totally destroyed by fire, without any living person whatever knowing anything of the matter until the next morning, when it was ascertained that the house had disappeared!

The facts of the case, as related to us by Mr. William H. Solomon, (who resides within a half mile of the scene of the catastrophe,) are as follows:

Hiram Robinson recently exchanged the farm upon which he resided, in Georgetown, Ottawa county, for a farm in the town of Gaines, half a mile east of Kellogg & Co.'s shingle mill, the latter being situated eight miles from this city on the Kalamazoo plank road. Monday and Tuesday Robinson was engaged in removing his family and goods to his new home, and, by the evening of the latter day, had his furniture pretty much arranged. The neighbors saw nothing of him after night-fall. It is supposed that he and his wife retired early, on account of the very fatiguing labors of the day. From the evening of Tuesday to the morning of Wednesday, everything in relation to the destruction of the house and its inmates remains an impenetrable mystery.

Surmises are busy with explanations; but the most probable is, that the building caught fire from the stove pipe; and, as the tenement was of boards, it was soon in a blaze. Owing to fatigue, Mr. Robinson and his family were probably not awakened till too late to escape. That they attempted to escape, is shown from the fact that the bodies of both man and wife were found lying partially beyond the door sill of the house, and the youngest child, an infant, outside of the location of the house. It is believed that, when they ascertained their danger, they rushed to the door and forced it open, but that, in so doing, some of the upper heavy burning timbers fell upon and cast the pair to the ground, covering the entire family with a horrible, inextricable bath of fire, and soon destroying life. The other child was a girl, aged about three years. Mrs. Mary Robinson, wife of Hiram, was the daughter of John Cutler, Esq., of Gaines.

Although there were inhabited dwelling houses within a short distance, yet none of the inmates knew anything whatever of the fire, and its terrible consequences, till the next morning, when Robinson's house was discovered to be gone.—Then the neighbors flocked to the scene of the disaster, and found all that was to be found—the charred bones of four human creatures and the smouldering remains and blackened timbers of the late dwelling.

The circumstances of the case are remarkable, and have scarcely a parallel. The house is a small one, and not strongly constructed. Its boards could easily have been knocked from the sides, and there were several windows, besides the doors. It must have been that the unfortunates were not awakened till the last moment, and then, in their bewilderment, rushed only to destruction instead of escape. We have heard of instances where families were murdered, and then their dwelling fired, in order to conceal evidence of guilt; but there is nothing whatever to suppose that the above can be placed in the same category.

Pennsylvania.

The Hon. David Wilmot is re-elected presiding Judge of the Judicial District composed of the Counties of Susquehanna and Bradford, by 4,630 majority over H. W. Patrick, Old-line Whig. The vote is as follows:—

	Wilmot.	Patrick.
Bradford	4,638	1,181
Susquehanna	3,054	1,926
Total	7,687	3,057

Last year, Wilmot's majority over Packer for Governor in the two counties was 4,366.

Full official returns from all the counties of Pennsylvania except three, foot up for Supreme Judge as follows:

	Grow, Rep.	Parkhurst, Dem.
John M. Read, Opp.	194,648
Wm. A. Porter, Dem.		168,228
Majority for Read,		29,428

The counties to be heard from will probably increase this majority to about 27,900.

The Hon. Galusha A. Grow is re-elected to Congress by the very pretty majority of 7,806. The official vote is as follows:

	Grow, Rep.	Parkhurst, Dem.
Bradford	4,774	920
Tioga	3,211	580
Susquehanna	2,180	1,859
Totals	11,165	3,359

Mr. Grow may safely be considered as a representative of the wishes of his constituents.

Follow up Your Advantages.

Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa, following Vermont and Maine, have left the Pro-Slavery Party and its Administration greatly weakened. But feeble and faint as they are, their condition should excite neither forbearance or sympathy. They never spare a foe. In their pride of power they announced, through Caleb Cushing, a determination to "CRUSH OUT THE SPIRIT" of Freedom. Through two Presidential terms they struggled to effect that purpose. Buchanan learned nothing from the fate of Pierce.—Though in the crusade against Freedom, Maine, and Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa had been lost to the Democracy; though Reeder and Geary and Walker and Stanton, had recoiled from the duty of violating Popular Sovereignty; though Douglas, Stuart, Broderick and twenty Representatives in Congress revolted, still the "crushing out" experiment went on!

And what is the result? The Administration has been "crushed out" in Mr. Buchanan's own State! The Key Stone to the Democratic Arch has fallen! One wall alone is standing. And that will topple over in November! That done, the work of clearing away the rubbish will commence, so that in 1860, a Republican Edifice, in harmony with the free institutions, and upon the model left by Washington, Jefferson and Madison, will be erected, under the protection of which the American People will once more enjoy prosperity and happiness.—Albany Journal.

The General Result in Kansas.

The general result of the election of the 4th instant is a return of sterling Free State men from nearly every county.

Jefferson County, owing to her local issues, has elected, he said, a pro-slavery delegation, and Atchison County is also claimed by the Democrats, although the Champion denies it, and says that the members elected are "anything else than Democrats." The contest in Atchison County was a bitter local fight on the county seat.

Aside from these counties, we believe there is not a doubt of the rest of the members being Free State. Leavenworth County, where the Democracy made its most bitter fight, under the guise of "Conservative Free State," and with a great howl over "niggers," has gone Free State, out and out.

In short, the result shows the continued permanency and strength of Free State principles, and the unyielding hostility of the people of Kansas to the slave Democracy, under whatever guise it may assume.—Lawrence Republican, 14th.

John Glancy Jones Accepts the Mission to Austria.

The Washington Union of Thursday says:

It affords us great pleasure to announce that the appointment of Hon. J. Glancy Jones, of Pennsylvania, as Minister to Austria, which was voluntarily tendered to him by the President, has been accepted by that gentleman.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—The first regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday noon, at the office of D. P. HULL & Co. There was but very little business done on Exchange, as the preparations had not been fully made.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Secretary to have 500 copies of the Constitution and By-Laws, together with the Act of Incorporation, printed in pamphlet form; also a resolution instructing the committee to have a contract drawn up in accordance with Mr. BOOTH's proposition, to furnish a room, telegraph reports, &c.

The new and handsome room occupying the first floor of the Free Democrat Building, it is expected, will be fitted up, ready for the use of the Chamber of Commerce, in the course of a week or two

TARGET SHOOT OF THE UNION GUARDS.—The Union Guards under Captain BARRY, had quite a gala day of it yesterday. They had a target shoot out on the farm of Captain BARRY, two miles this side of WAUWATOSA. The Company marched out in the early part of the day, preceded by the American Cornet Band, and had the target shoot in the afternoon. The contest for the prizes was close, as the appearance of the center of the target unmistakably indicated.

The first prize was awarded to Serg't O'ROURKE,
" second " " " " Priv't J. A. RILEY,
" third " " " " THOMAS O'NEIL.

Private HICKEY made the best single shot.—The first prize was a silver medal, and the others handsome books. A very full turn out of the Company, which numbers forty-five active members, attended the target shoot. It is the first shooting match they have had, and the way in which the target was riddled shows that they understand the practical use of the musket.—Success to the Union Guards and their gentlemanly Captain.

THE ALBANY RESTAURANT.—The card of the proprietor of this well known establishment will be found in this morning's paper. It is unquestionably the most complete of its kind in the West, and may safely challenge comparison with the best establishments at the East. The whole of the first floor is devoted to the uses and purposes of a first class Restaurant, and here Major FIELD presides with equal skill and urbanity.—In the second story is the Billiard Hall, large, lofty, well aired and abundantly lighted, and furnished with eleven of the best tables to be found anywhere. This department is under the immediate supervision of Col. DICKINSON. Citizens or strangers wanting anything from a lunch to an elaborate dinner, served up in the best style, can be accommodated a "the Albany."

SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS A FOOT.—The Wisconsin says that within a few days past the lot owned by Mr. JOHN MCEWEN, who keeps a confectionery store on East Water Street, a little below Martin's block, on the opposite side, has been sold by that gentleman to a Mr. SILEMAN for $600 a foot. The lot is 17 feet wide by 120 feet deep. The entire payment was made in cash with the exception of between one and two thousand dollars remaining on a short mortgage. This is an indication of the recuperation in the times.

FOURTH WARD ASSEMBLY NOMINATIONS.—At the Republican Caucus in the Fourth Ward, last evening, 108 votes were cast, of which J. A. SWAIN received 97, and was declared duly nominated. Mr. SWAIN is an old resident of our city, an honest and capable man, and a staunch Republican. He will make an efficient and trustworthy Legislator.

MUSICAL SOCIETY CONCERT.—Our Milwaukee Musical Society give another of their popular Concerts at Albany Hall this evening. The programme will be found in our advertising columns. We need not advise all who love good music to attend this Concert. They will do so, of course.

Correspondence—To William Beck.

We hope you will yield to our request, and we hereby pledge you our support at the polls, and all our efforts for your triumphant election.

REPLY OF MR. BECK.

Gentlemen:—I am in receipt of your favor asking me to consent to run for the office of Sheriff of Milwaukee County; and in reply would say that I feel grateful for the honor intended to be conferred, in offering me your support for so important an office. But while sensible of your kind intentions, I am of the opinion that it would be improper and inopportune for me to consent to be a candidate, under present circumstances, and would therefore respectfully, though absolutely decline to become a candidate.

Bar Meeting.

An adjourned meeting of the Bar Association was held at the Court House on Saturday at 4 p. m. In the absence of the President, Judge MCARTHUR was called upon to preside.

Mr. PALMER, from the committee appointed at the former meeting, reported an instrument which, under the law passed last winter, it was necessary should be signed and acknowledged by nine of the corporators, for the purpose of organizing as a Law School and Law Library Association. The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

Mr. PALMER moved the appointment of a committee of three, to designate nine gentlemen to execute the aforesaid instrument, who should be the first directors of the corporation. The motion was adopted, and the chair appointed as such committee Messrs. PALMER, RYAN and MAY, who subsequently reported the following gentlemen:

Messrs. Edward G. Ryan, Nelson Cross, John B. D. Cogswell, James S. Brown, Norman J. Emmons, And R. R. Butler, Jonathan E. Arnold, Otis H. Waldo, and Henry L. Palmer.

Judge CROSS was appointed a committee of one to procure the signatures and acknowledg ments of the said corporators.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

SCALP OF AN INDIAN BRAVE.—Col. H. E. DICKINSON, who returned from St. Paul on Saturday last, brought with him the scalp of the celebrated Chippewa Chief, Crow Feather, who was surprised and slain by a war party of the Sioux, a year or more ago. It may be seen at the Albany Restaurant.

The following description of the Sioux "Scalp Dance" was published in the N. Y. Tribune some time since:

THE SCALP DANCE OF THE SIOUX.—The "scalp," as taken by the Sioux, includes not only the part of the head covered with hair, but the skin of the forehead and cheek to the corner of the mouth. This is stretched on a hoop about two feet in diameter, the ornaments in the ears still in them, and those of the hair arranged as they are on the scalp. A pole hoop and the inner side of the scalp are painted with vermillion, and the skin, where not covered with hair, is painted blue or some other color.

After a great deal of ceremony in pressing, the dance begins. A procession of squaws carries the scalp around the encampment, singing and shouting, the men, meanwhile, beating rude drums made of powder kegs, making a noise with rattles and every other way they can.

After a while the men stand in a row with their music, the scalp is set up and the dance begins. The squaws arrange themselves in ranks of three or four together, standing so as to form tangents to a circle, about twelve feet in diameter, (the scalp in the centre.)

The drumming begins, and the squaws, by a "half hitch, half jump," go round backwards.

The music, if it may so be called, is in "double time," a light stroke and a heavy one alternately, about forty measures to a minute; the "step" is taken at the heavy or accented stroke. Every one who can get something to beat with does so. The time is kept very exactly. The singing or yelling, for it is both, is very violent, occasionally a few words in connection are chanted, but generally the only articulate sounds are ho yo, ho yo, the first syllable a violent explosive. The tones are better than the music; they are frequently so regular in their construction as to create surprise. I have heard intervals struck truly and repeatedly by the squaws that I have known choirs drill upon for hours, besides the organ, and then pronounced them difficult. One tune they had begins as high as the voice can reach, and descends by "diminished thirds" to the low bass tones, and then rises by similar succession.

They sing until they are tired, and then break off with a kind of a bark, like a dog. Some of the squaws frequently accompany the singing with a harsh guttural "squak," like the notes of a wild goose, in the same manner as a "la la" accompaniment in some of our glee books. The most surprising part of all is that it is kept up so long. I have noticed the throats of the men swell out, the veins turgid, and the eyes look as if starting from their sockets—but still they keep on.

These dances are continued night after night, all night for months.

NEWHALL HOUSE.—The proprietors of the Newhall, Wisconsin's favorite hotel and pride, gave the editors stopping there on their way to and from the Editorial Convention, the best the house afforded, without money and without price. There is no Hotel west of New York city, that can compare with the Newhall, in any point, and we are right glad to see by its well filled daily register that it is beginning to be properly appreciated. All of "our boys" have fell in love with the proprietors, while the girls are setting caps for BROWN, the favorite clerk.—Horicon Argus.

RUNNING.—The elevating machinery of the large warehouse of Messrs. ANGUS, SMITH & Co. was put in motion yesterday and worked satisfactorily. The engine is a model of strength and neatness, and though of the largest size, it runs as noiselessly as a spinning wheel. It was manufactured by Messrs. MENZEL, CUMMINGS & GOODRICH, of this city.

PERSONAL.—The Rev. DAVID KEENE is expected to arrive to night, from his trip to Europe. His friends are requested to meet at the parsonage, to tender him their congratulations on his return to his field of labor. The popularity of the Rev. gentleman will doubtless call out a large company, and his parishioners will be happy to meet his personal friends from other parishes, to unite with them in extending to him a hearty welcome.

THE BARQUE NUCLENS.—This vessel, which was driven ashore at Bailey's Harbor, west shore of Lake Michigan, in a gale some two weeks since, has been pulled off, and is now lying at anchor at Bailey's Harbor water-logged, her cargo, which consists of lumber, keeping her afloat. A tug has been sent to her assistance from this city, (the Notter, we believe,) and she will be towed to this port for repairs.

THE FIRST SALE OF 'CHANGE.—The first sale of wheat on 'change since the days of the old Corn Exchange, was made at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday, by Mr. ROBERT ELIOT, of the firm of ELIOT & HOLMES.

TO CALIFORNIA BY THE NICARAGUA ROUTE.—We invite the attention of all who may have any design or necessity to visit the "Land of Gold," to the advertisement which appears in another part of our paper this morning, in relation to the Nicaragua route to California. The advantages of this route are said to be the great saving of distance in the sultry and sickly navigation of the tropical latitudes to the south of San Juan del Sur—being 700 miles shorter than any route—avoiding the exhausting effects of the hot climate and risks of Panama fever.

The Isthmus crossing passes through a beautiful and healthy country—within the range of the trade winds, which renders the climate delightful. These natural advantages, and the magnificent scenery have excited the marked attention of every traveler who has passed over the route. The Agent of this route is JOHN P. VELVERTON, No. 3 Bowling Green, New York.

ANGUS SMITH & Co.—We neglected to call attention to the card of these gentlemen, which appeared in yesterday's paper. Their large elevator warehouse at the termini of the Milwaukee and Mississippi, and of the Milwaukee, Watertown and Baraboo Valley Railroads, is now completed and in running order, as we have before noticed, and they are prepared to store grain and flour on the most advantageous terms. Messrs. SMITH & Co. give notice that they will make liberal advances on property in store or for Eastern Markets.

ANNUAL ELECTION OF SUPPLY HOSE CO. NO. 1.—At the Annual Election of this Company, held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

H. A. STARR, Foreman,
C. N. MERL, Assistant,
WM. SOUTHWELL, Secretary,
MESSO NEWBRE, Treasurer,
J. A. PEARSON, Steward,
EDWARD MERL, Warden.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.

New Orleans papers received here contain the particulars of VIDAURI's defeat by MIRAMON. The former was not on the field when the engagement commenced, and his army appears to have been attacked when least apprehensive or prepared for it

The rumors at Brownsville were, that the defeated army lost 500 men killed, and that 200 of them were taken prisoners with their artillery and provisions.

An express from Monterey to Metamoras, however, says their loss was not so great, and only a portion of the artillery and munitions were captured by MIRAMON's forces, and that the liberal party made their retreat from the field in good order. An official paper received at Monterey says that VIDAURI has already sent orders to the commander at Tampico for another park of artillery, where there is plenty to be had, which will soon be in the field, together with the many forces concentrating about Vidaurri. To renew the attack Col. Gaudaloupe Garafol was to leave Tampico on the 7th, for the interior, with 300 infantry and 3 pieces of artillery.

Private advices from a high source, received at Washington, state that VIDAURRI has ordered all Spaniards to leave San Luis Potosi within 24 hours, and that if any were found there afterwards they should be treated as if in an enemy's camp.

The Captain-General of Cuba had ordered two vessels of war from Cuba to protect his countrymen.

Excitement at New Albany, Indiana.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 25.

Horace Bell, who released his father and brother from Brandenburg jail, last July, where they were committed on a charge of running off negroes, was taken on Saturday from the Fair Grounds, at New Albany, Ind., without a warrant, and was brought into Kentucky by Louisville officers.

New Albany became tremendously excited. Fire bells were rung, and a large meeting was held on Saturday evening. One hundred people chartered a ferry boat, and left for Brandenburg yesterday, for the avowed purpose of rescuing Bell. An express was sent from Louisville to Brandenburg, to place the citizens on their guard against the hostile expedition. Gov. Willard has promised a requisition on the Governor of Kentucky for the men who captured Bell.

ORGANIZE! ORGANIZE!

We appeal to the Republicans of the several Wards and Towns in this County, and of every County in our State, to devote the intervening six days before Election, to the all-important work of Organization.

Having completed their local tickets, let them take instant and effectual measures:

1st—To procure a full supply of BALLOTS.

2nd—To call out every Republican voter.

3d—To prevent ILLEGAL VOTING.

Each of these is of prime consequence, and no time should be lost in attending. Especially is it of the utmost importance to rally the entire Republican strength to the Polls, and to guard the Ballot-box against FRAUD. For this purpose, there should be appointed, for every voting precinct, a RALLYING COMMITTEE, who will see to getting up the Voters, and one or two reroute CHALLENGERS, who will watch the Polls. Attend to these things, friends, without delay!

Political Injustice.

The "bolting" Democrats, who, following the example of the News, refuse to support Messrs. BADE and DOLAN, the regularly nominated Democratic candidates for Sheriff and County Treasurer, urge several specious reasons for this course. They insist, in the first place, that BADE and DOLAN are not "Democrats"; but this is notoriously untrue, since both these gentlemen have not only always been Democrats, but working Democrats. We can answer personally for Mr. BADE, as we have encountered him, year after year, at the Seventh Ward Poll, leading on the Democratic forces, and contesting the ground, with our Republican friends, inch by inch. Mr. BADE and Col. JOHN WHITE, on the Democratic side, and the Editor of this paper, for the Republicans, have been during the last ten years, the challengers of the respective parties at the Seventh Ward poll, and we know whereof we speak when we testify to the undoubted "democracy" of the two gentlemen named.

But it is alleged that Messrs. BADE and DOLAN have been "bolters," and that they did not support Mr. J. B. CROSS for Governor. This last specification they positively deny, and as to the general charge they plead "safe Democratic precedents." It would be difficult, we imagine, to find any "Democrat" in this County, who, during some of the "rough and tumble" political conflicts of the last ten years, has not "bolted" some portions of the so-called "regular" ticket. Certainly, among the very accusers of Messrs. BADE and DOLAN, are men who have "bolted" again and again, and openly boasted of it.

Lastly, a great outcry is made against the notorious and shameful bribery and corruption which prevailed in the Court House Convention. Undoubtedly, there is good ground for this outcry. Delegates, elected to favor one candidate, were openly bought up to vote for another.—It is positively asserted that the entire delegation from one town and portions of the delegation from two other towns, were thus bribed.—But this was not done by the friends, or for the benefit, of Messrs. BADE and DOLAN. On the contrary, it was done by those who were laboring for the nominations of other persons. This objection, therefore, does not apply especially to Messrs. BADE and DOLAN, but if good at all, is good against the whole Court House ticket—And that, we think, is the prevailing impression of the people. Nominations, tainted as these are, with open bribery and notorious corruption, do not deserve the popular confidence and support.

The Bolters' News.

The News angrily denies the statement that it "bolts" a portion of the regularly nominated democratic county ticket, and coolly adds:

The News favors every democratic candidate, and those who "retaliate" by bolting such as we "favor," will be under the necessity of bolting the entire ticket.

This is an impudent cheat. The very same number of the News, which contains this denial, runs up the "independent democratic nominations" made at the Bolters' Meeting at Albany Hall, Saturday afternoon; and gives a rose-colored account of that tempestuous and disorderly gathering. It is notorious, moreover, that the Bolters' meeting was got up and engineered by the News clique, who are bitter in their opposition to BADE and DOLAN. This treachery, on the part of the News, towards its party candidates, has excited the strongest indignation among the friends of the two men whom it proposes to "knife."

KENOSHA CO., REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS—Hudson Fox, for Sheriff; L. B. Nichols, Clerk of the Court; H. H. Tarbell, Register of Deeds; R. H. Deming, Clerk of the Board; H. W. Hulburd, Treasurer; O. S. Head, District Attorney; Jason Lathrop, Surveyor; Henry Lines, Coroner. These nominations are all first rate and will be elected with large majorities.

A CAPITAL NOMINATION.—The Republicans in the First District of Jefferson County, have nominated A. J. CRAIG, OF PALMYRA, as their candidate for the Assembly. Mr. CRAIG is the Editor of the Journal of Education; a man of integrity and ability; and in all respects well qualified for the office for which he is nominated.

UNDOUBTEDLY.—A correspondent of the News writing from Berlin, says, in speaking of LARRABEE:

"The Judge is as sure of his election, as he lives till the second day of November."

Undoubtedly the "second day of November" will dispell the delusion.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Gov. Randall and Senator Davis at Cambria.

CAMBRIA, Oct. 23d 1858.

MR. EDITOR:—The Republicans of Cambria and the vicinity had a general turn out to-day, to receive GOV. RANDALL and Senator DAVIS.—Both met with a most respectful and affectionate reception. The Governor, though previously known to be a good and talented man, and respected as such, has of late got an abiding place in the confidence and heart of this community, by his bold and (rarest, yet best political virtue) honest refusal of his name refusal of his name to the Land Grant rag.

The Senator is known here of old—known what stuff he is made of—pure as gold, tough as leather, persevering as time, resolute as destiny. Gold cannot buy him, friendship cannot bias him, opposition cannot defeat him. He is our man. Tried and yet ours. We will not ask friends to support him, we know they will—we only ask them to turn out, one and all, as our foes will be in the field.

After partaking of a dinner prepared for the Governor and Senator, we were addressed in the Welsh church, a large building, yet crammed full Senator DAVIS occupied but a short time, which he consumed mainly in refuting accusations with which our local democratic papers are just now bespattering him. He might have spared himself the trouble here, had he known what confidence we have in his integrity.

The Governor spoke at some length. His address would have been well worthy your columns; but alas! your poor correspondent's memory serves him so treacherously, that he is unable to give you a sketch of it. Perhaps the presence of a Governor (the first I ever saw excepting that of a steam engine,) may have so upset me as to impair that best of faculties. This, however, I do remember, that he defended the broad Republican doctrine on strictly philosophical principles. Like the smiling face of a watersheet, his speech was full of broad waving humor, gladdened by rippling, twinkling witticisms; yet down, down deep, we could see reflections of the celestial, underlaying all.

We apprehend no danger in this section. Some around here, it is true, look on politics as the merest pastime:—think no more of politicians' struggles than they would of a game of chess, and care little which of the two players wins; but, my jolly, rollicking friends, mind me, if our leaders are playing at chess, "the pawns thereof are men," and it behooves you and me to look to whose hands we are likely to fall.

Upon the whole, I have learned to look on political, as well as every other terrestrial work, as a battle against the devil. Let us show the enemy a bold front the coming election. A sorrowful work it must needs be, to all earnest men; yet must we do it, or be devoured. Whether he manifests himself as the champion of a slave oligarchy in the South; in judicial garbs on the highest bench in the Union; as a flashy squandering gentleman, wearing the mantle of Democracy in the North; or as a chess-player at Madison and pawn broker in Milwaukee, I say, let us fight him in God's name.

Let us keep our tried men in the van, those we know will never shun his face, who are always ready to tell him to his face that he is the Devil, and that for that very reason they are there to do battle against him—that they cannot suffer him any longer to tarry on this God's Earth, man's—the working man's, true inheritance. Our safety is in keeping our tried men to their post. If we allow our best men to withdraw—flunkeyism crouches at the door, ready to spring to any vacant official chink. P.

Minister to Russia.

A private letter from Indianapolis assures us that the President has tendered the mission to Russia to Mr. Hughes, lately defeated for Congress in that State.

Mr. John G. Jones once wrote to a man in this State that the President would not fill the foreign missions until he could reward his Illinois friends for defeating Douglas.—Chicago Times (dem.) of Saturday.

MR. HUGHES, like Mr. JONES, is rewarded by the President for betraying the People. The Federal patronage is thus openly and shamefully used to corrupt the Representatives of the People. How can any honest man, or sincere democrat, vote for an administration which thus defies and outrages public sentiment, and bestows offices and honors upon those faithless servants whom the People have condemned and rejected?

GRANT COUNTY NOMINATIONS.—The staunch Republicans of Old Grant, have nominated the following popular ticket:

For Sheriff—WILLIAM H. FOSTER, of Lancaster.
For Treasurer—JAMES JONES, of Hazel Green.
For Clerk of Circuit Court—JOHN. G. CLARK, of Lancaster.
For Clerk of Board of Supervisors—WOOD R. BEACH, of Beetown.
For Register of Deeds—JOSIA H. EVANS, of Platteville.
For District Attorney—JOSEPH T. MILLS, of Lancaster.
For County Surveyor,—JOSEPH W. BLANDING, of Muscoda.
For Coroner—STEPHEN MAHOOD, of Lancaster.

Assembly Nominations—First District, WM. BRANDON; 2d District, JESSE WALDORF; 3d District, SIMON E. LEWIS; 4th District, H. A. W. MCNAIR; 5th District, LUTHER BASHFORD.

The Grant County Herald is making vigorous fight for the good cause, and the Republicans of that County will, we hope, roll up one of their heaviest majorities on Tuesday next.

EAU CLAIRE ASSEMBLY DISTRICT.—JAMES A. GRAY, of Eau Claire County, is the Democratic Candidate for the Assembly in that District.—The nomination was made on the 11th ballot.

On the 5th ballot, Judge H. D. BARRON, of Pepin, received nine votes, lacking only one of a nomination. Judge BARRON is one of the most worthy citizens of Pepin and would make an intelligent and reliable Legislator.

MANNER OF DIRECTING LETTERS FOR THE PACIFIC COAST.—Persons writing letters to the Pacific coast, should designate on each letter, on the upper left hand corner, the route by which they wish them sent, viz:

"Overland," "via Tehuantepec," or "via Panama."

Letters marked "Overland," will be sent by the Overland Mail Route, recently opened from St. Louis to California; letters marked "via Tehuantepec," by New Orleans and the Isthmus of Tehuantepec; and those marked "via Panama," will be sent as usual, by New York and Panama to San Francisco.

A FUGITIVE SLAVE AT THE CAPITAL.—The Madison Journal of Saturday says:

It turns out that one of the negroes imprisoned in the county jail the other day, by the tremendous vigilance of Messrs. Bishop & Welch, for being caught at playing penny poker, was a fugitive slave from Louisville, Ky. The other darkies had been discharged, but he was mysteriously detained until rumors were rife of a correspondence going on between certain parties here and in Louisville. He was rather abruptly set at liberty last night. And these rumors anything to do with it?

"THE QUAKER VOTE."—The Boston Journal says: "the long missing Quaker vote in Pennsylvania has been heard from. It is slow, but sure when it comes."

We welcome the long expected 'Quaker vote.' We missed it in October 1855, and vainly looked for it in the coming November. Our Quaker friends are never fast, but they are famous for holding on when they come. We should judge, by the returns, that monthly meetings must be in a flourishing condition in Berks county.—Providence Jour.

JUDGE YE!—Chas. H. Larrabee, while a Judge on the bench, boasted in a speech delivered, near to Kingston, in this county, two years since, that he had voted the "democratic ticket ever since he was sixteen years old." What value can such a party put upon the elective franchise? How will he preserve the purity of the ballot box? How would he have appeared, sentencing a culprit for the commission of a crime of which he had himself boasted? Does he represent your sense of integrity and purity, freemen of this great Congressional District?—Record your withering answer next November.—Berlin Courant.

From the Buffalo Daily Courier.

Championship of the Prize Ring---The Great Fight Between Morrissey and Heenan.

The great fight between John Morrissey, and the Benicia Boy, John Heenan, took place yesterday at Long Point, some 90 miles from here, agreeable to the rules of the Prize Ring, and for the championship of America and a wager of $2,500 a side. The match was made up some three months since, and so far as we were able to learn forced upon the Benicia Boy by the friends of Morrissey, who were on the ground in large numbers and confident of the ability of their man to whip his young and splendid opponent, this confidence being increased and strengthened from facts which leaked out in relation to Heenan's condition.

Morrissey weighs 180 pounds, and is 26 years old. He was trained principally by Shepard, an English trainer.

Heenan weighs 186 pounds, and is 23 years old. He has nothing of the look of a fighter in his countenance. He was first trained by Jo Coburn, and subsequently by Aaron Jones, the celebrated English prize-ring fighter. Heenan's colors were red, white and blue, while Morrissey's were blue with a white polka dot.

The boats, four in number, which left Buffalo on Tuesday night with a most interesting looking crowd, reached the Point soon after daylight on Wednesday morning, and anchored off from the shore about half a mile. The scenes on the boats, crowded to repletion during the night, were highly amusing. There was negro minstrelsy, cards and sweat cloths in abundance.—After breakfast, the work of loading from the steamers commenced, and it was over five hours before all were on shore, and then after wading in water knee deep for several rods. At last, however, all reached terra firma, several receiving a rather unpleasant wetting from the swamping of the small boats.

For several hours the question as to the location of the ring was discussed by those whose business it was, and at last a spot on the sand near the Light House, on the extreme point of the island, was chosen, and the work of setting the ring commenced, and completed by about one o'clock. The selection of the ground belonged to Morrissey, and although the spot selected was not in accordance with the articles of agreement, it was very handsomely acquiesced in by Francis McCabe on the part of the Benicia Boy, who was anxious that those who had come so far to see the fight should be gratified

At nineteen minutes past one Heenan made his appearance in the ring with much cheering, and in a few minutes after Morrissey also appeared and went to his corner. On his appearance he was vociferously cheered by his friends, who, by the way, were very largely in the ascendant. Heenan at once observed this, but looked very quiet and composed, while the bearing of Morrissey was considerably different.

With the appearance of the men in the ring the betting set in, and large odds were offered by the friends of Morrissey and Morrissey himself on his not only drawing the first blood, but giving the first knock down and the first throw. When the odds were large they were taken.—The betting however was not large.

After the men had taken their corners in the ring with their seconds, over two hours were spent in settling the question as to who should be the referee. Various propositions were made by Billy Mulligan on the part of Morrissey, and Francis McCabe on the part of Heenan, but not agreeing, it appeared, at last, as if there was to be no fight at all, and loud were the complaints from the outsiders, but at last, however, it was settled through the intervention of Morrissey and Heenan themselves, Heenan agreeing in a few remarks which were much cheered, to accept anything so that the fight should take place. On this McCabe on the part of Heenan, proposed that two referees should be chosen, which proposition was accepted. It then being 25 minutes to ¾ o'clock, the stripping for the fight commenced, and in a few moments after, principals and seconds marched to the center of the ring, and shaking hands, walked back to their corners, and in a moment or two thereafter each walked up to the scratch, looking like Roman gladiators, and squared off for the fight.

First Round.—Considerable and very handsome sparring took place on the commencement of this round. Morrissey rushing at him, and endeavoring to get in a counter on his mug, which was very cleverly stopped by Heenan, and at last followed up by him with such terrific hitting as to astonish the friends and seconds of Morrissey, pushing in his left hand on Morrissey's smeller, and bringing the claret in a stream, Morrissey retreating, and Heenan following him to the rope, and here Heenan let fly his left, which had it hit Morrissey on the mug, the fight would have most probably been ended. But Morrissey dodged the blow, and passing by his head, it struck the corner post and smashed his hand very badly, breaking it in one or two places. Here they clinched and Morrissey was thrown, Heenan falling heavily upon him. The round throughout was terrific, and admitted by all fighters present to be unequalled in the annals of the ring. The round lasted seven minutes.

Second round.—Thirty seconds having expired, time was called, and both appeared at the scratch, Morrissey looking somewhat wildly, and both showing some fatigue from the efforts of the first round. After a little sparring, both went again to work, Heenan making the fighting, stopping Morris ey's blows capitally, and counter-hitting with his right and left on Morrissey's face, and Morrissey getting in one or two hard ones on Heenan's ribs. They clinch, and Morrissey is thrown. This round was also a very hard one.

Third Round.—Both men came up, looking much fatigued from the heavy fighting of the two previous rounds. After a few passes they came to close quarters, and Heenan gets in some bad ones on Morrissey's face, while Morrissey returns them on Heenan's ribs. Heenan down.

Fourth Round.—Morrissey's advantage in the last round was received with much cheering, and his friends began to think that his star was again to the ascendant. At odds, as before, the fight commenced, and this was strengthened by the appearance of Morrissey, who did not seem as much fatigued as at the second round. Soon after coming to the scratch, both set to work, struggling like giants for the supremacy, yet both appearing weak, Heenan the most so, and limping slightly as if somewhat lame. Both, however, soon got at it, and fighting terrific, each giving and receiving some tremendous blows on the body and face. They clinch, and after much struggling Heenan was thrown, Morrissey falling very heavily upon him.

Fifth Round.—Morrissey came to the scratch looking better from the nursing of his seconds than in the last round. Heenan, however, made play at once, and after considerable sparring, driving Morrissey near the ropes, got in a tremendous blow with his left on Morrissey's cheek, cutting it badly, and bringing Morrissey to the ground as if he has been kicked by a horse.—This was the first knock down, and was loudly cheered by Heenan's friends.

Sixth Round.—On their being called, both came to the scratch with a weak and tottering step, Heenan the most so. Morrissey let fly with his right, but was cleverly stopped by Heenan, who followed up and got in three successive blows with his right and left on Morrissey's smeller, making the claret flow in a stream. Morrissey, though driven to the ropes, rallies and clinches, throwing Heenan and falling upon him heavily.

The remaining five rounds were all in favor of Morrissey, Heenan, in each round, getting in some splendid blows, but unable to withstand Morrissey's rushes and blows on the ribs. In four of the following rounds, Heenan was thrown, and in the last or eleventh round fell from the force of his own blow, and when time was called for the twelfth round, Heenan failed to come to time, and the referees decided the fight in favor of Morrissey. Morrissey was seconded, and very ably too, by Jim Kelly and Dublin Tricks, and Heenan by Aaron Jones and Johnny Mackey.—There were eleven rounds fought in 27 minutes.

So far as the condition of the men was concerned, Morrissey was infinitely superior, as Heenan had been confined in the house of a friend on Carlton street, in this city, since Saturday last to Tuesday evening, and under the care of Dr. Geo. Burwell. To this, and the breaking of Heenan's left hand in the first round, Morrissey owes his success. The fight is admitted to be the most terrific of any which has taken place in this country. Morrissey was in fact whipped in the first round, but did not seem conscious of it. He is a tremendous fighter and has experience in the ring, having fought with Yank e Sullivan, while the Benicia Boy, on the contrary, has no acquaintance or experience of this kind, having not only never fought in the ring, but never even seen a prize fight.—The ability and game which he showed in this fight, under very unfavorable circumstances, have convinced his friends of his great power, and they are now willing to back him against Morrissey or any other man in the world, for any sum from five to twenty thousand dollars.

The number of persons present was about twelve hundred, mostly of the "Fancy," and from all parts of the country. Among them we saw the notorious Bill Mulligan, who was driven from San Francisco by the Vigilance Committee; Dad Cunningham, who shot Pandeen a few weeks since in a saloon in New York, and Louis Baker, who was engaged in the fray in which Bill Poole was shot. The gathering was not a very flattering one in its character, but the whole affair passed off without any disturbance, and both the fighters returned by the boats on which they came, the Benicia Boy being but slightly bruised, and that about the body, while Morrissey's face is badly hurt, his nose being broken, and his left eye and cheek terribly cut.

The crowd having been got aboard of the boats by 9 o'clock, they left, reaching this city about three o'clock this morning.

Large amounts of money have been staked on the fight. In this State alone over $200,000 have been bet, and it is estimated that over $500,000 will change hands in consequence of the fight. Bets have been made in New Orleans, Cincinnati, and even in Havana.

☞ The following decision by Judge Thomas, in the case of the Commonwealth vs. H. W. Baldwin, we find in the Worcester Transcript of the 16th inst.:

"Commonwealth vs. Baldwin. Opinion by Judge Thomas.

"This was an indictment for forgery. The defendant signed a promissory note, 'Schouler, Baldwin & Co.,' representing that there was a firm of that name in Columbus, consisting of himself and Mr. Schouler. Held, that this did not amount to forgery, even if defendant knew that no such firm existed, the defendant making and intending the instrument to be received as his own signature, and not as the hand writing of another person."

☞ PERSONS OF SEDENTARY HABITS, who are generally afflicted with Vertigo, Languor and Exhaustion, Nausea and Headache, have in Boerhave's Holland Bitters a grateful remedy. It gives strength and energy to the system, stimulates the digestive organs, and corrects acidity of the stomach.

We would caution the public against purchasing any of the many imitations of this delightful Aromat. To prevent imposition be careful to ask for BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.

LITTLE MAUD.

BY T. B. ALDRICH.

O where is our dainty, our darling,
The daintiest darling of all?
O where is the voice on the stairway,
O where is the voice in the hall?
The little feet-steps in the entry,
The silvery laugh in the hall?
O where is our dainty, our darling,
The daintiest darling of all?
Little Maud!

The peaches are ripe in the garden,
The apricots ready to fall;
The blue grapes are dripping their honey
In sunshine upon the white wall;
O where are the lips, full and melting,
That looked up so pouting and red
When we dangled the sun-purpled bunches
Of lambels over her head?
O Maud! little Maud! say where are you?
(She never replies to our call!)
O where is our dainty, our darling,
The daintiest darling of all?
Little Maud!

Cruel Treatment of Seamen---The Case of Surgeon Sherman.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Oct. 19.

It was mentioned that Dr. W. Sherman, Surgeon United States Navy, had appealed to Secretary Toucey from the decision of the Court Martial dismissing him from the African squadron. To understand more clearly the Doctor's offence, I have procured a copy of his letter to Commodore Conover:

U. S. Ship Dale, Porto Praya, July 27, 1858.

Sir:—It becomes my duty, as the Surgeon of this ship, and from motives of humanity, to report to you a case of punishment, which has very nearly resulted fatally, on board this ship to-day.

Wallace Halsted, O. S., was placed in confinement in one of the ship's cells (commonly called "sweatboxes,") at about ten this morning, with his hands in irons behind him, and kept without food or water until after four o'clock this afternoon, when the medical officers were hurriedly called to him. Upon opening the door of the box, the man fell forward on his face in an almost dying condition, and for a time his state was most alarming and distressing; but by prompt removal to the fresh air, and other treatment, he recovered sufficiently to be out of immediate danger.

To understand fully the severity of the punishment, it is necessary to state that the man had already been engaged with the ship's company in exercising sails, before confinement; that the day was one of the warmest we had at this place; that the cells are close by the ship's galley, which, of course, much increases the temperature; indeed, I found by experiment, after the occurence, that the thermometer stood at 95°, although the fires at that time, 4½ P. M., were nearly out. That the air, besides being very hot, is also rendered much more noxious by the smoke and vapors issuing from the galley, and that the size of the cells alone is sufficient, under any circumstances, to render confinement in them, for any time, dangerous, or at any rate injurious, to the health of the confined. The dimensions, of the cells, four in number, are: In height, 6 feet 7 inches; in width, 17½ inches; in depth, of the deepest 16 inches, of the more shallow 13 inches.

I have spoken of the probable injury which might result from confinement in such cells; but as I do not make representations or remonstrances, except upon the strongest grounds, I determined to wait until such were afforded me, and this case affords grounds strong as anything but death could. It has been the former practice in this ship to keep the men in ten or twelve hours, without food or drink—in at least one case for thirteen hours. The men have been deterred from appealing to medical aid by the threat, that if released by such interposition, they would be, on leaving the Surgeon's care, again confined for as long a time as was originally intended, without regard to the confinement already suffered previous to release by the Surgeon's advice.

I submit respectfully to you, the highest officer of the United States here present, the foregoing statement, and have to reiterate most earnestly my conviction, professional, that such punishments are cruel and inhuman, and not contemplated by the law.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
W. SHERMAN, P. A. Surgeon.

To Flag Officer T. A. Conover, Commanding United States Squadron, West Coast of Africa.

The communication was sent through the commanding officer, (McBlair,) the party responsible for the matters reported, with a written request that he should forward it to Commodore. The only answer received were the charges preferred by the Commodore at the instance of Commander McBlair against Dr. Sherman, as follows:

1. Treating his superior officer with contempt.
2. Scandalous conduct; and
3. Neglect of duty.

On these charges he was tried by a Court consisting entirely of sea officers, found guilty, and dismissed from the squadron. The Court held that the report should have been made to Commander McBlair himself. I understand that Attorney General Black has taken the matter in hand, Dr. S. being a Pennsylvanian. It is anticipated that he will be ordered back to the Dale.

Chess---Victories of Mr. Morphy.

The match between Mr. Morphy and Mr. Harrwitz has proceeded another stage, the former having the advantage. It will be remembered that the first two games of this combat incured to Mr. Harrwitz, after which four were played, Mr. Morphy being the victor. Mr. Harrwitz, on the plea of ill-health, postponed the further prosecution of the fight for some time, until on the 29th ult. it was resumed. The first game was drawn, and the critics hinted that the interval had not been wasted. The second has fallen to Mr. Morphy, who now, no doubt, will win the match. That honor accrues to the first who has seven games. The count now stands—Morphy 5, Harrwitz 2, Drawn 1.

The score of Mr. Morphy's European tour, thus far, is as follows:

TO THE PUBLIC.

In answer to the numerous letters addressed to me on the subject of the Mustang Liniment, I would say that I have had no connection with that article for several years. It was invented by me, and while put up under my control and supervision, was universally accepted by the public, as the best liniment in the world. In 1851 I sold out my interest in it to other parties, and since that time it has passed through the hands of several persons, most of whom have been so unscrupulous as to manufacture a cheaper article, which, while it served entirely destroy its value as a medical remedy, resulting for success in selling to its former highly established reputation. Its present proprietors have gone so far as to substitute other articles in the composition for those in the original formula, so that the Mustang Liniment now vended possesses no one of the distinguishing characteristics of the genuine article, and it was originally invented and manufactured by me. These parties, to enable themselves with more facility to foist their worthless and injurious article on the public, use my name as its pioneer, calling it "Bragg's" Mustang Liniment, and publishing to the public to beware of any other Bragg's Liniment as an imposition. This is done while a few of existing prejudice against "BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT," an article more recently invented by me, and possessing all the virtue of the original Mustang. With these improvements—the result of experience and later discoveries—and manufactured by Bragg & Burrowes, which firm is composed of my son, Oliver T. Bragg, and Michael Burrowes. This article is sanctioned in many respects to the Mustang, when it was put up pure and in good faith, and is immeasurably superior to the article now vended as the Mustang Liniment. It is also the only liniment manufactured to which my name is authorized by my authority or consent. In conclusion, I cannot hold myself responsible for any of the evil results of using the Mustang Liniment now vended, and especially after this public disclaimer of any connection with its proprietorship or manufacture.
Respectfully, A. M. BRAGG, M. D.

THE IMPORTANCE OF REGULARITY.—It is highly important that mankind should observe strict regularity in all the affairs of life. Regularity induces health—Irregularity produces disease. Most people are particular about eating at regular hours—retiring to rest at regular hours—rising at a regular time—and we should be equally as particular about discharging, from the bowels, the fecal and acrimonious humors of the body at a regular hour—to empty the bowels of their contents at a regular time. If mankind would observe this great and important duty, and prepare their bowels to move regularly, they would avoid much sickness. Radway's Regulators induce Regularity. They regulate every organ to regular action. The Liver, Pancreas, Kidneys, Heart, Skin, Bowels, and all other organs, will, after the action of Radway's Regulators, move with all the regularity of clock work. Persons troubled with Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, &c., will find, that, by taking one of Radway's Regulators every night, on going to bed, they will have a pleasant discharge of the bowels in the morning at a regular period of time. One Regulator will regulate—three will purge.
Sold by Druggists everywhere.
R. P. R. is sold by O. HARRINGTON, BOSWORTH & SONS, L. F. LAKE, and J. H. TYSON, Milwaukee, and by Druggists everywhere. oct15 d&w2w

COMMERCIAL & FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, Monday Evening, Oct. 25, 1858.

MONEY MATTERS.—The money market presents no new feature to speak of. There is a sufficiency of currency for all business purposes, and the banks are accommodating their customers to a liberal extent, at the usual legal rate. Outside rates range from 1¼ to 3 per cent per month, according to the length of time. Exchange and Gold are selling as before.

MILWAUKEE DAILY MARKET.

In consequence of the improvement in the Eastern breadstuffs markets, a little more buoyancy was observable in our market to-day, and wheat was a little firmer, with an upward tendency. Receipts, however, are very small, and sales are as light as scarcely to establish a reliable advance. Some 1,500 bus ex No.1 spring, sold on Change to-day at 70c, and this is the first transaction at the Chamber of Commerce. The range for extra No. 1 is 70a70c and for extra 75a82c, for fair to choice. A very nice sample of No. 1 sold at 70c, and the sales at 65c Saturday's ruling figure, were extremely light. Flour is a trifle firmer, and we note one or two small sales of spring extra country brands at $4,25. Oats continue firm, and good samples readily bring 40c. The range for new being 33a40c. Barley and rye are quite dull—the latter almost unsaleable. In other articles there is no important change.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

☞ Mr. I. H. Coffin, a celebrated wrecker, has been down to the unknown vessel sunk off Erie, and has brought up both anchors and a chain. The weights of the anchors are 915 lbs. and 693 lbs.; size of chain, ⅞ inch. She has low bulwarks, with canal bowsprit and new mainsail. Supposed to be wheat-loaded. The weight of the anchors correspond with those of the sch. Albion. So says the Buffalo Express.

THE SCHOONER ROMAN.—The Oswego Times contradicts the report that this vessel lay at Sandwich Point until after the recent gale. That paper says: "It is known that he Roman left Detroit river, and was seen by the sch. J. G. Beard, bearing down the lake in the great gale, but no reliable intelligence of her whereabouts afterwards has ever been received."

If this is correct, the Roman is no doubt in the bottom of Lake Erie, with all on board.
